Featured Alumni:

Pam Gravis

Pam Gravis came to San Marcos to attend SWT, but upon graduation, believes that she has found her home. Pam moved from East Texas in 1995. She graduated from SWT in 1999 with a degree in Mass Communication. Already working for the San Marcos Daily Record during college, Pam decided to stay on staff, working first as an advertising artist and then building a thriving retail sales territory. Pam then moved into classified advertising and has now been part of the Daily Record family for twenty-one years.

Pam quickly added features to the Daily Record's classified section, including the wildly popular Garage Sale Queen and King promotion. Pam enlisted Krispy Kreme as a sponsor for the weekly Garage Sale royalty drawing. The winners are crowned each Saturday, awarded donuts and coffee from Krispy Kreme, and featured in the newspaper as an advertisement.

Pam's devotion to the development of San Marcos has guided her into many civic organizations dedicated to shaping the growth of the town she loves. In 2014, Pam was selected to participate in Leadership San Marcos in 2015. After her training in LSM, she attended the San Marcos Citizen's Police Academy. Pam has also been an active member of the San Marcos Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors for five years, and has been in the Top 10 Ambassadors of the Year since she joined the Chamber. Pam serves as a member of the Special Events Committee, the Business and Development Committee, and the San Marcos Chamber Advanced Networking Group. This year, Pam was the Team Leader of the Winning team of the Chamber of Commerce Operation Thank You. Pam is a new member of the Heritage Association of San Marcos, and recently retired from the City of San Marcos Ethics Commission.
